

Pre-reg recruitment through Oriel

Oriel is a national system for recruiting pre-registration pharmacists. Our briefings so far have explained what Oriel is, why pharmacy students are using Oriel to find pre-reg placements, and the pros and cons for pharmacy employers thinking of using Oriel to recruit pre-registration pharmacists in 2020/21.

This month, we're focusing on the next steps for pharmacy employers who want to use Oriel for the next round of pre-registration recruitment.
