

New requirements for the supply of Appliances

On 1st April 2010 changes were made to the Terms of Service for pharmacies that dispense appliances listed in Part IX of the Drug Tariff.

Pharmacies may regularly dispense appliances in the course of their business, or they may dispense such prescriptions infrequently, or they may have taken a decision not to dispense them at all. The terms of service require a pharmacist to dispense any (non-blacklisted) medicine 'with reasonable promptness'; for appliances the obligation to dispense arises only if the pharmacist supplies such products 'in the normal course of his business'. However the changes to the requirements for supply of appliances listed in Part IX of the Drug Tariff affect all pharmacies even if they do not normally supply these appliances.

Full guidance on the changes, including the introduction of two new Advanced services (Appliance Use Review and Stoma Appliance Customisation), is available at www.psn.org.uk/appliances. On the website you will find a range of template forms to support contractors in the provision of the new services. A brief summary of the changes to Essential services and suggested actions for pharmacies is provided below.

Although the Regulations came into force on 1 April 2010, pharmacies that are already on the pharmaceutical list before that date have until 31 December 2010 to comply, unless they intend to provide the new Advanced services - in this case, the new terms of service must be complied with from the time at which the pharmacy proposes to provide the new Advanced services. For pharmacies that are included in the pharmaceutical list on or after 1 April 2010, compliance with these new terms of service is required from the date the pharmacy opens.
