Nutricia Advanced Medical Nutrition appoints two solus wholesale partners

Nutricia Advanced Medical Nutrition is pleased to announce that from 4th April 2015 it will appoint two solus wholesale partners.

Firstly, Alliance Healthcare (Distribution) Ltd will become Nutricia's sole distributor of its Metabolics and Allergy products to all Retail Pharmacies and Dispensing Doctors in England, Scotland and Wales.

Secondly, AAH Pharmaceuticals Ltd will become Nutricia's sole distributor of products to all hospitals with a formal contract or other commercial arrangement with Nutricia, in England, Scotland and Wales. For hospitals that currently receive direct deliveries from Nutricia we will work with our customers to manage a transition to AAH.

These solus supply chain partnerships are to support Nutricia's aim of providing customers with an improved service for hospital products and better stock management of Metabolics and Allergy products.

Nutricia will continue to manage distribution direct to its homecare patients.

Nutricia has a reputation for outstanding service levels within the industry and is committed to maintaining this by introducing continued efficiency improvements. The selection of the two solus wholesale partners followed a robust and extensive tender process. Nutricia is now working closely with its partners to ensure a smooth transition to the new arrangements.

About Nutricia Advanced Medical Nutrition

Nutricia is the market-leading provider of medical nutrition products and services for people and patients whose health benefits from nutritional support.

We put patient care at the heart of our company and our experienced team is passionate about transforming lives through our proven expertise and understanding of nutrition.

Our innovative products support a wide range of people, from infants through to older people, and our diverse services integrate with the NHS, making it easier for patients to receive the medical nutrition they require both in hospital and in their own home.

Because we believe medical nutrition is integral to healthcare we work closely with organisations and healthcare professionals to ensure patients have access to the right nutritional care when they need it the most

As part of the Danone Group, Nutricia expands and completes Danone's mission to bring health through food to as many people as possible
